

Section 101 Challenges in AIA Trials at the PTAB

Andrew S. Baluch
SMITH BALUCH LLP
baluch@smithbaluch.com

March 13, 2020

Overview

- Current Snapshot of § 101 at the PTAB
- Historical Overview of USPTO Rulemaking, Policy-setting, and 101 Guidelines
- AIA Trial statistics
 - Overall filing rates
 - § 101 success rates in IPR, CBM and PGR
- Comparison to District Court § 101 Challenges
- Future Possible USPTO Rulemaking in PGR Context

Cases in which §101 Can Be Decided by PTAB

- Ex Parte Appeals in Patent Applications.
- Reexam Appeals (for new or amended claims)
- Interferences
- AIA Trials at the PTAB
 - Inter Partes Reviews (for motions to amend claims)
 - Covered Business Method Reviews
 - Post-Grant Reviews

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Section 101 Challenges in AIA Trials at the PTAB

Also available as part of the eCourse

2020 Advanced Patent Law \(USPTO\) eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 15th Annual Advanced Patent Law Institute session

"Section 101 Challenges in AIA Trials at the PTAB"