

COVID-19: Privacy Considerations and Best Practices

Jessica Cassidy Katz, Whole Foods Market
Sooji Seo, Dell
Christopher Jeffrey, Taylor Wessing
Matt Staples, Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati

May 22, 2020

WILSON
SONSINI

1

PANELISTS

Jessica Cassidy
Katz
Sr. Data
Governance
Counsel

Sooji Seo
VP Legal & Chief
Privacy Officer

Christopher Jeffrey
Partner

Matt Staples
Partner

WILSON SONSINI

2

Topics of Discussion

- COVID-19 Privacy Headlines
- Key Applicable Privacy Laws
- Foundational Privacy Principles
- Privacy Principles Applied
- Additional Resources

3

COVID-19: Privacy Headlines

4

COVID-19 Privacy Headlines

- “More surveillance and less privacy will be the new normal after the coronavirus pandemic”
 - Fortune (April 20, 2020)
- “As COVID-19 cases increase, so do privacy concerns about EHR snooping”
 - Healthcare IT News (March 13, 2020)
- “Stopping COVID-19 will include monitoring and sharing personal data”
 - NBC News (April 16, 2020)
- “Coronavirus: State surveillance a ‘price worth paying’”
 - BBC News (April 24, 2020)
- “Europe’s Other Coronavirus Victim: Information and Data Rights”
 - Reporting Democracy (March 24, 2020)

5

Key Applicable Privacy Laws

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: COVID-19: Privacy Considerations and Best Practices

Also available as part of the eCourse

2020 Technology Law eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 33rd Annual Technology Law Conference session

"COVID-19: Privacy Considerations and Best Practices"