Entity Name Availability Standard BOC §§ 5.053, 5.102 & 5.153

Distinguishable In the Records

- Comparison shows enough differences to make the name available.

SAME

- Comparison shows no differences or the only differences do not alter the names sufficiently to make them distinguishable. Unavailable even with consent.

Available with Consent

- Comparison reveals certain similarities and therefore is only available with consent.

Entity Name Standard Definitions 1 TAC §79.30(2)

“Key word” means a word or words that alters the proposed name sufficiently to make it distinguishable in the record. Key word does not include:

- an article of speech or a conjunction;
- a preposition, unless the addition, substitution or omission of the preposition alters the name sufficiently to make it distinguishable;
