

Lawyer Wellness in a COVID~19 World

Presented by Erica Grigg, JD, TLAP Attorney

TEXAS LAWYERS'
ASSISTANCE PROGRAM
1-800-343-TLAP

STATE BAR of TEXAS

Stress

Anxiety

Depression

Burnout

Secondary Trauma

Alcohol / Substance Abuse

Cognitive Impairment

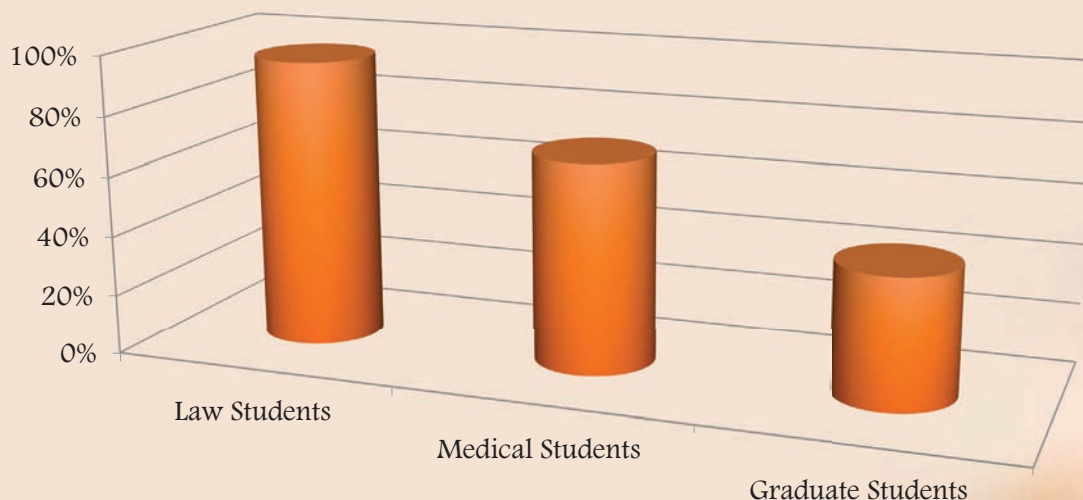

Suicide

Gambling and other process
addictions

Major Problems for Attorneys

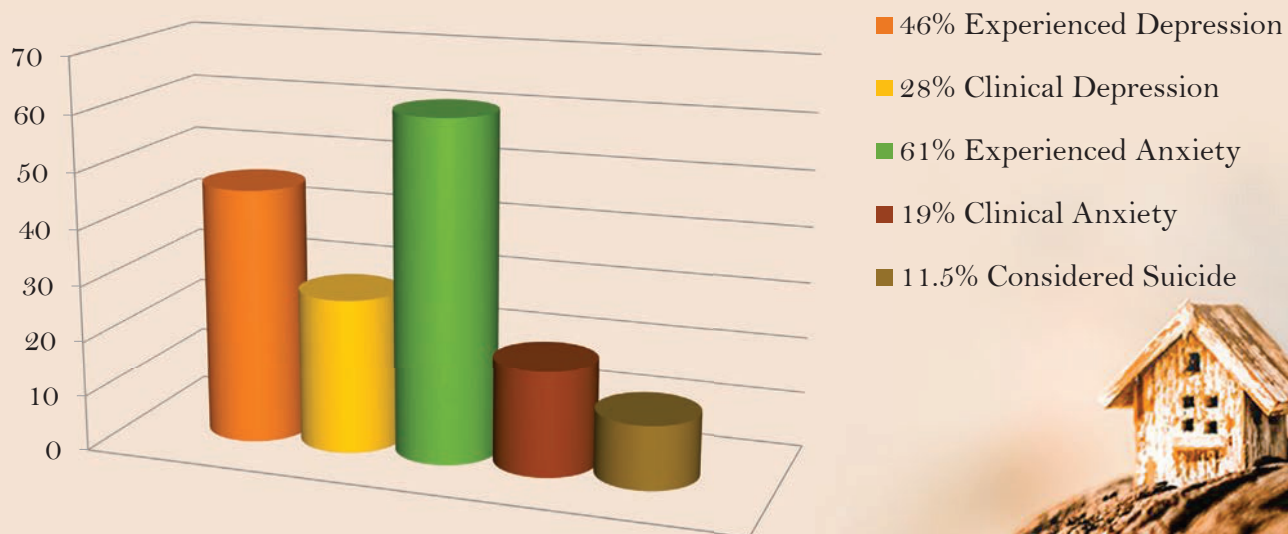

How Graduate Students Rank for Anxiety

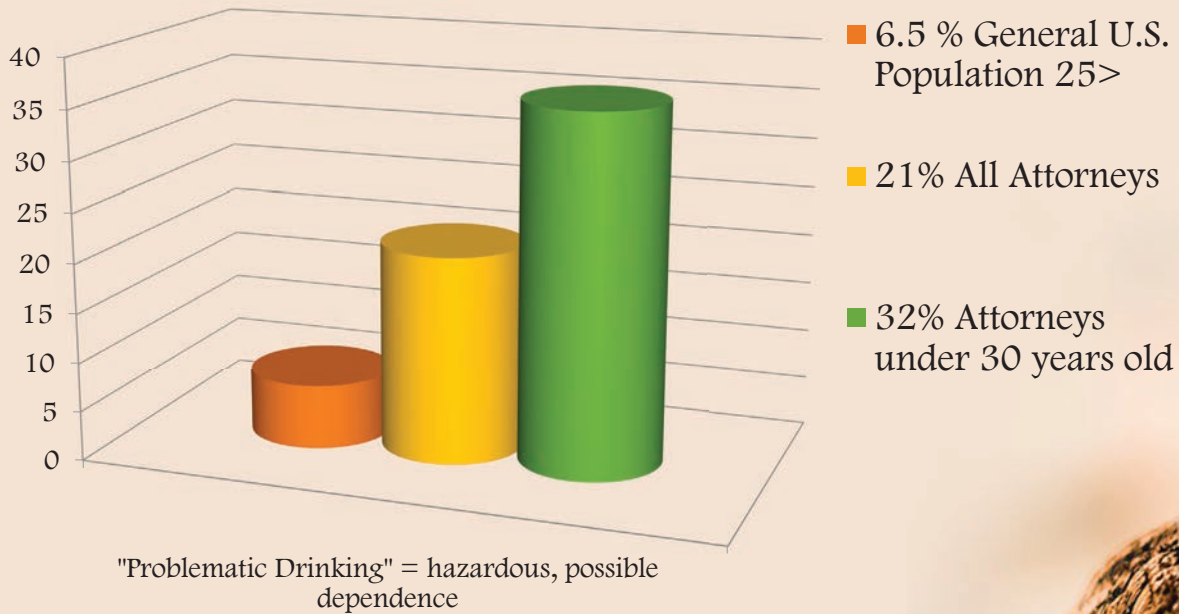

Law Students: 96%
Medical Students: 70%
Graduate Students: 43%

2015 ABA Study of Almost 13,000 Attorneys: Attorney Mental Health Issues

2015 ABA Study of 13,000 Attorneys: Problem Drinking for Attorneys

Depression

According to a 1991 Johns Hopkins University study of depression in 105 professions, lawyers ranked number one in the incidence of depression.

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Lawyer Wellness in a COVID-19 World

Also available as part of the eCourse

2020 The Car Crash eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 2020 Car Crash Seminar session

"Lawyer Wellness"