

Section 1031 Proposed Regulations

December 3, 2020

Richard M. Lipton, Speaker

with special thanks to Joyce Walsh (Deloitte Tax LLP),
Holly Belanger (KPMG LLP) and Lou Weller (Weller Partners LLP)

1

Objectives

- Proposed Regulations add definition of real property
 - Role that state law classification plays
 - Unexpected additions
 - Uncertainty remains

2

2

Objectives

- Incidental Property Rule
 - Helpful in certain cases but not others
 - Trap for the unwary

History of Like Kind Exchanges Under Section 1031

- Section 1031 first enacted in 1921
- Modified in TCJA 2017 to limit like-kind exchange (LKE) treatment to real property interests as of January 1, 2018

History of Like Kind Exchanges Under Section 1031

- Proposed Regulations published on 6/12/2020 are intended to provide guidance in two areas:
 - Amend existing regulations to add a definition of real property to reflect TJCA statutory changes

5

5

History of Like Kind Exchanges Under Section 1031

- Provide a rule addressing use of relinquished property funds to acquire personal property that is incidental to the real property that the taxpayer receives in the LKE

6

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Section 1031 Proposed Regulations

Also available as part of the eCourse

2020 Taxation eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 68th Annual Taxation Conference session

"Hot Topics in Partnerships and Like Kind Exchanges"