

UT LAW

CLE

Continuing
Legal Education

FEDERAL POLICY ON COVID-19 RELIEF

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS CLE CONFERENCE

THURSDAY, JANUARY 21, 2021

MEHLMAN CASTAGNETTI
— ROSEN & THOMAS —

Dean Rosen – Partner
Email: drosen@mc-dc.com

Caplin & Drysdale
ATTORNEYS

Douglas N. Varley - Member
dvarley@capdale.com

1

OVERVIEW

- What is Driving Federal COVID Policy?
- What Has Been Done So Far at the Federal Level?
- How Might the 2020 Election Impact Policy on COVID?
- Where Are We Going?

2

HEALTH CARE SYSTEM IMPACT

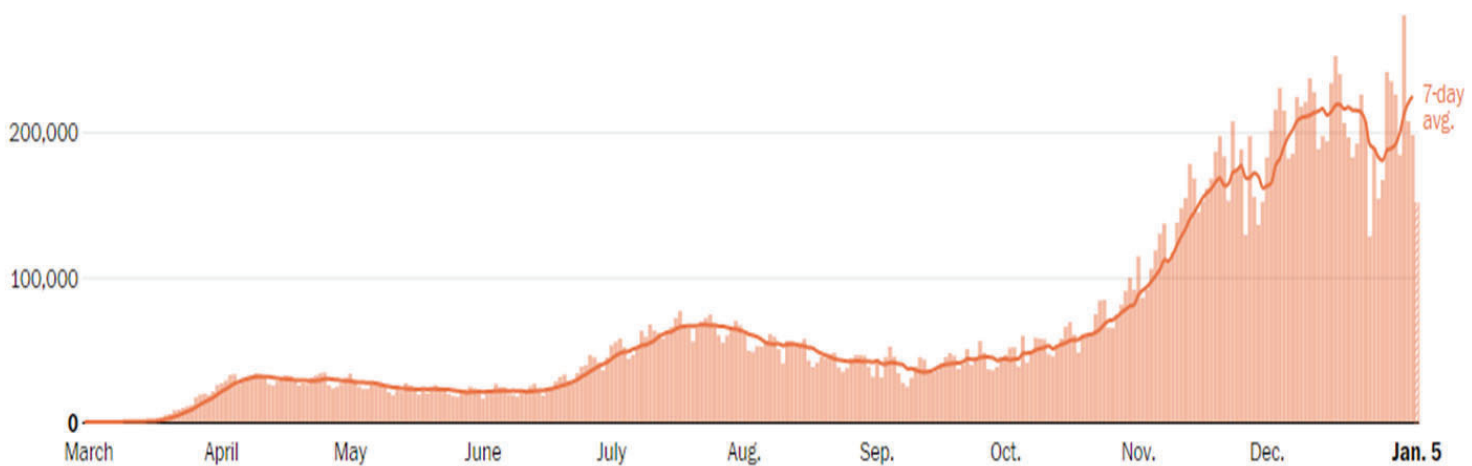

3

COVID CASES IN THE U.S. CONTINUE TO GROW

New Reported COVID-19 Cases Per Day in the United States

At least 20,990,866 cases and 355,006 deaths have been reported since Feb. 2020

Source: The Washington Post

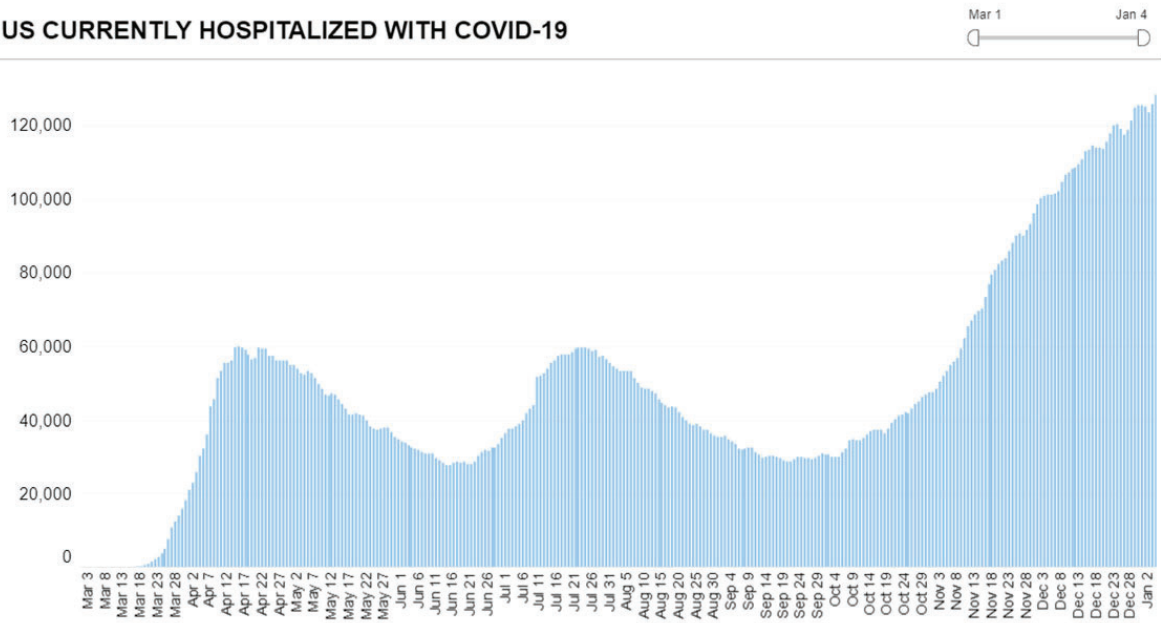

MEHLMAN CASTAGNETTI
ROSEN & THOMAS

4

4

PATIENTS CONTINUE TO BE HOSPITALIZED FOR COVID

US CURRENTLY HOSPITALIZED WITH COVID-19

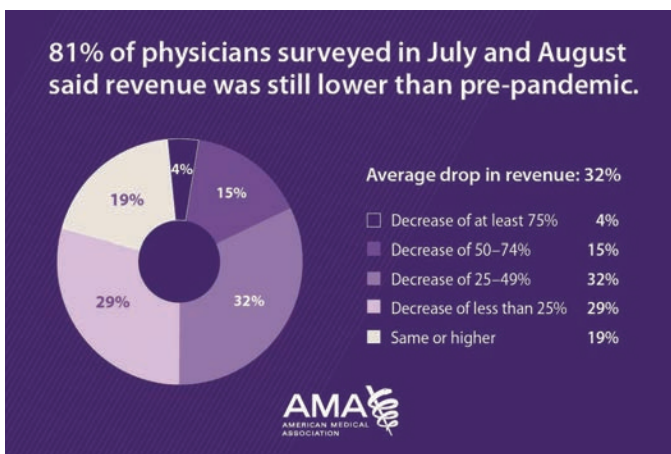

Source: The COVID Tracking Project at The Atlantic

MEHLMAN CASTAGNETTI
ROSEN & THOMAS

5

5

HOSPITALS AND PHYSICIANS HAVE FELT ECONOMIC IMPACT FROM COVID

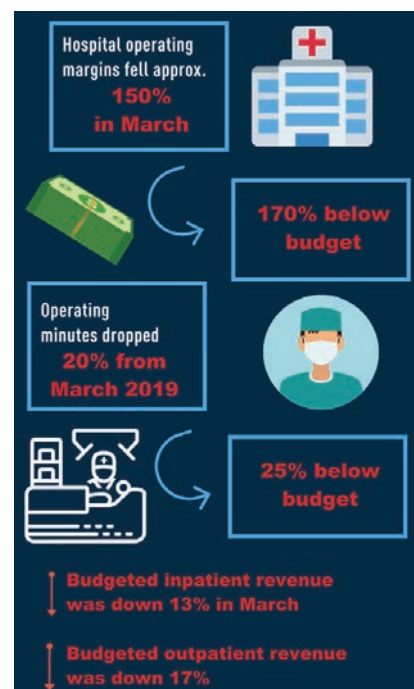

Source: American Medical Association; Health Evolution

MEHLMAN CASTAGNETTI
ROSEN & THOMAS

6

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Federal Policy on Covid-19 Relief

Also available as part of the eCourse

2021 Nonprofit Organizations eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the

38th Annual Nonprofit Organizations Institute session

"Nonprofit Sector Update, Part II: The Stimulus Programs and Beyond"