

Governing in Crisis Mode:

General/State Law Fiduciary Issues

Susan K. Staricka, Staricka Law, PLLC
Nicola Fuentes Toubia, Founder, Fuentes Toubia, PLLC

1

1

Governing in Crisis Mode:

General/State Law Fiduciary Issues

- ▶ Introduction
- ▶ Fiduciary Duties
- ▶ Good Governance / Training
- ▶ Crises Case Studies
- ▶ Questions

2

FT

© 2021 Fuentes Toubia, PLLC

2

Introduction

© 2021 Fuentes Toubia, PLLC

3

3

Goals of primer

- Master and embrace fiduciary duties, which are the building blocks of good governance
- Understand why good governance helps mitigate damage from crisis
- Learn why training on policies and procedures ensures better crisis management and communication
- Identify weaknesses in your own organization to ensure better outcomes before the next time you face a crisis

© 2021 Fuentes Toubia, PLLC

4

4

- ▶ Crisis can sink a nonprofit or make it stronger
 - Red Cross
 - United Way
 - Susan G. Komen
- ▶ Crisis drives change
- ▶ Crisis creates opportunities
- ▶ Crisis is no time to panic

- ▶ Many types of crisis:
 - Financial
 - Embezzlement
 - Economic crash
 - #MeToo or other type harassment becoming public
 - Civic unrest
 - Natural disasters/Pandemics
 - Political
 - Personnel/Personal issues

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Governing in Crisis Mode: General/State Law Fiduciary Issues

Also available as part of the eCourse

2021 Nonprofit Organizations eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 38th Annual Nonprofit Organizations Institute session

"Governing in Crisis Mode: General/State Law Fiduciary Issues"