

Tell The Story: Persuasive Writing and Speaking Act Like You've Been There Before

2021 Robert O. Dawson
Conference on Criminal Appeals
May 13, 2021

David Keltner
david.keltner@kellyhart.com

KELLY  HART

1

Darrell Royal

2

2

Thanks

Your Audience

- Overworked judges/justices.
- Permanent staff attorneys.
- Inexperienced law clerks.

Your audience shares two desires

- To quickly understand your argument.
- Find keys to resolving the appeal.

Know your audiences' personality

- Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.
- Court of Appeals (Panels).

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Tell the Story: Persuasive Writing and Speaking

Also available as part of the eCourse

2021 Robert O. Dawson eConference on Criminal Appeals

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 2021 Robert O. Dawson Conference on Criminal Appeals session
"Tell the Story: Persuasive Writing and Speaking"