“A very different Supreme Court”

- “A very different Supreme Court will meet in two weeks to grapple with the potential of 4-4 splits and a caseload that includes no less than the future of the Affordable Care Act and possibly the presidential election.”
-- Ariane de Vogue, CNN (Sept. 21, 2020)
- “a 6-3 Court is much less nimble than a 5-4 Court” and “would require real consensus to demonstrate [an] apolitical attitude”
-- Adam Liptak, National Constitution Center, We the People Podcast, Oct. 1, 2020
- After a 2019 term that was “by far the most consequential in recent memory,” October Term 2020 “at first glance ... seems like it will be a reversion to the mean.”
-- Irv Gornstein, Georgetown Law Supreme Court Institute (Sept. 22, 2020)
