

Section 4960: Who, When and How Much

1

Section 4960: Who, When, and How Much?

Properly identifying covered employees, the existence of deferred compensation arrangements, and ensuring that compensation is properly measured for relevant reporting periods.

2

Section 4960: Who, When, and How Much?

- Section 4960: Basic Overview

- Imposes a 21% tax (the corporate tax rate) that:

- is effective for tax years beginning after December 31, 2017,
    - is payable by the exempt employer, on the sum of
      - 4960(a)(1) - employment remuneration paid by an applicable tax-exempt organization (ATEO) to a covered employee over $1 million, and
      - 4960(a)(2) excess parachute payments paid, to a covered employee.

- ATEO includes colleges and universities that are exempt under Section 501(a) as well as those exempt under Section 115(1).

3

Section 4960: Who, When, and How Much?

- Who is a “covered employee”?

- A covered employee includes:

- the five highest compensated employees of the institution for the taxable year; AND
    - any covered employee for any preceding taxable year beginning after December 31, 2016
    - The number of “covered employees” is subject to continuous expansion.
    - Includes former employees of the institution.
    - Includes deceased employees, if payments are made to families of death of covered employees
    - NOT just officers

Section 4960: Who, When, and How Much?

- Example:
  - In 2018, A, B, C, D, and E are the five highest compensated employees (and have been since 2017).
  - In 2019, F, G, H, I, and J are the five highest compensated employees.
  - For 2019, all ten employees are “covered employees.”
- Example 2: Same facts as Example above but in 2021.
  - In 2021 F and G are no longer in top paid group, replaced by L and M
  - F terminates voluntarily in 2021. His section 457(f) plan vested normally in 2021 and is paid in a lump sum in 2022
  - G is now part-time
  - A – M are all counted as covered employees.
  - Need to test F’s 457(f) payment for 4960 purposes

5

Section 4960: Who, When, and How Much?

- How Much? Identifying 4960(a)(1) Remuneration.
  - Remuneration includes:
    - wages (as defined in section 3401(a)),
    - ineligible deferred compensation plan distributions under Section 457(f)
    - Taxable fringe benefits
- Note: Remuneration includes compensation paid by “related organizations.”
