

JANUARY 12, 2021

Financial Literacy for Nonprofits Workshop

Ruth Snell, Audit Director

Mark Schrutka, Audit Manager

DIRECTOR - AUDIT

Ruth Snell, CPA

Ruth is known for being a collaborative team member who excels at developing engagement teams that deliver exceptional client service. It was her experience in industry before grad school that helped her develop an understanding of both sides of an accountant-client relationship. As a member of the audit and advisory teams at Holtzman Partners, Ruth focuses her efforts on financial statement audits, employee benefit plan audits and SOX consulting. Prior to becoming a CPA in the state of Texas in 2008, Ruth worked for a regional firm in Atlanta.

MANAGER - AUDIT

Mark Schrutka, CPA

Mark primarily works on financial audits for software, retail, and not-for-profit clients, in addition to assisting with the Employee Benefit Plans Practice. He provides guidance in areas that include equity, implementation of ASC 606, and inventory. In his role, he successfully works through complex accounting areas and builds relationships with his engagement teams along the way. Mark, a Houston native, started his career as a teacher and football coach before returning to school to earn his Master's degree.

About Armanino

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Financial Literacy for Nonprofits Workshop

Also available as part of the eCourse

2022 Nonprofit Organizations Fundamentals eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 2022 Nonprofit Organizations Fundamentals Workshop session
"(2:45 p.m.) Concurrent Workshop: Financial Literacy for Nonprofits"