Formation and Qualification for Tax Exemption as a Public Charity

Formation and Qualification for Tax Exemption as a Public Charity

- Form as a legal entity under state law
- Most common: nonprofit corporation
 - Alternatives – trust, association, LLC
- Corporate formation documents:
 - Articles of Incorporation
 - Bylaws
 - Policies: Conflict of Interest, Whistleblower, Document Retention

Formation – Organizational and Operational Tests

- In order to be exempt as an organization described in section 501(c)(3), an organization must be both organized and operated exclusively for one or more of the purposes specified in such section. If an organization fails to meet either the organizational test or the operational test, it is not exempt (Treas. Reg. §1.501(c)(3)-1(a)).
