

Bad Facts: Making Lemonade From Lemons

Quentin Brogdon

Crain Brogdon Rogers
Dallas, Texas

Qbrogdon@cbrlawfirm.com
214-598-1009 cell

1

“The Wrong Stuff”

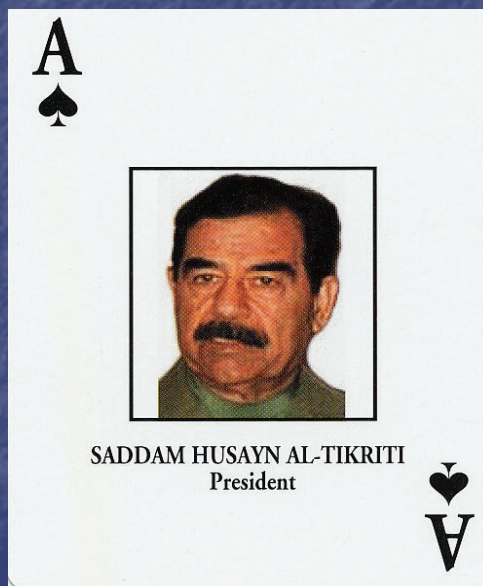

2

“The Wrong Stuff”

- “[H]e crashed and was burned beyond recognition, but he should have known better than to wait so long before lowering the flaps. He nosed over and dove straight into Chesapeake Bay. [H]ow could anybody be in such poor condition as to pass out that quickly from hypoxia? There are no accidents and no fatal flaws in the machines: there are only pilots with the wrong stuff.”

3

Bad Clients and Bad Witnesses

4

Importance of the Plaintiff

- “It is an old rule and a good rule, that it is the duty of the trial court to try the lawsuit and not the individual litigant, for it has been said many times ‘A bad person may have a good lawsuit.’”
Transport Ins. Co. v. Cossaboon (El Paso 1956).

5

In a Just World, Bad Things Do
Not Happen to Good People

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Bad Facts: Making Lemonade From Lemons

Also available as part of the eCourse

Hooked on CLE: July 2022

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 2022 Bad Facts: Making Lemonade From Lemons session
"Bad Facts: Making Lemonade From Lemons"