

Criminal Appellate Case Statistical Analysis

Dawson Conference on Criminal Appeals

James Huggler, May 25-27, 2022

1

What Does Your Warning Sign Say?

2

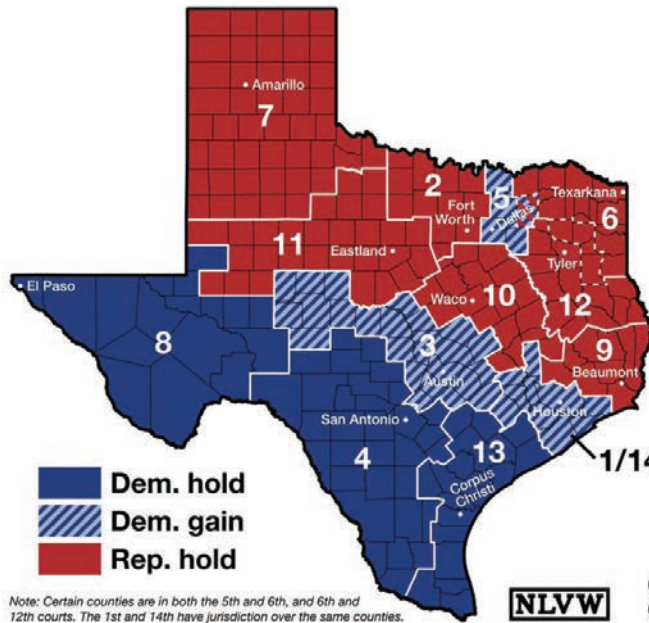

3

4

Texas Courts of Appeals after the 2018 Elections

NLW

* Not up for election in 2018
○ Vacant seat

5

7:36 PM Sun Nov 1

houstanlawreview.org

Hous. L. Rev.

Articles ▾ For Authors Editorial Board About Issues Blog Subscriptions For Students Podcast

search

Articles

Vol. 57, Issue 3, 2020 - April 11, 2020 CDT

Reasons for Reversal in the Texas Courts of Appeals

Kent Rutter, Natasha Breaux

dtipa tort dismiss compel plea injunction default

summary judgment bench jury

Photo by Jim Wilson on Unsplash

Hous. L. Rev.
Kent Rutter & Natasha Breaux, Reasons for Reversal in the Texas Courts of Appeals, 57 Hous. L. Rev. 671 (2020).

Table of Contents

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Reversal Trends in the Appellate Courts

Also available as part of the eCourse

2022 Robert O. Dawson eConference on Criminal Appeals

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 2022 Robert O. Dawson Conference on Criminal Appeals session
"Reversal Trends in the Appellate Courts"