

Bow Your Head and Play: A discussion on Kennedy v. Bremerton

LEASOR
CRASS

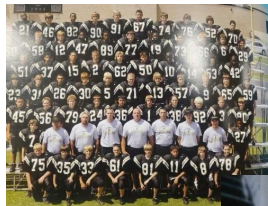

302 W. BROAD STREET
MANSFIELD, TEXAS 76063
PHONE: 682.422.0009
FAX: 682.422.0008

www.leasorcrass.com

Presented by Mike Vorsino and Mike Leasor

1

Proof!

2

Meet Coach Kennedy

- Joe Kennedy was an assistant football coach at Bremerton High School from 2008-2016.
- After watching the movie, Facing the Giants, Coach Kennedy felt moved to say a prayer of thanks after each football game.
- He chose to do this by taking a knee at the 50-yard line immediately after the game. His prayer took about 30 seconds.

5

Here Come the Players

- After awhile, some players asked the coach if they could join him. "It's a free country," he told them. Eventually, a majority of the team was with him in prayer.
- Coach also participated in pre and post-game prayers with players and gave inspirational speeches to the team with religious references.

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Bow Your Head and Play: A Discussion on Kennedy v. Bremerton

Also available as part of the eCourse

2023 School Law eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 38th Annual School Law Conference session

"Bow Your Head and Play: A Discussion on Kennedy v. Bremerton"