

The No Surprises Act

Colbey B. Reagan, Partner

University of Texas at Austin Health Law Conference
Houston, Texas
Thursday, April 6, 2023

Holland & Knight

Copyright © 2023 Holland & Knight LLP. All Rights Reserved

1

Agenda

- Introduction
- Overview of the No Surprises Act
- Penalties for Non-Compliance
- What Healthcare Providers Must Do to Comply
- Wrap-Up/Questions

Holland & Knight

2

2

Introduction

Colbey B. Reagan, Partner

(615) 850-8798

Colbey.Reagan@hklaw.com

Nashville, Tenn.

Colbey Reagan advises healthcare providers on Stark and anti-kickback compliance, licensing and certification, HIPAA, reimbursement matters and other regulatory issues affecting the healthcare industry. He also assists clients facing data breach and other government investigations.

Previously, Mr. Reagan was Deputy General Counsel of Psychiatric Solutions, Inc., where he was responsible for advising the company and its facilities regarding compliance with state and federal healthcare regulations, physician relationships, reimbursement disputes, licensing and certification, mergers and acquisitions, corporate litigation, and numerous other challenges faced in the day-to-day operation of a large healthcare company.

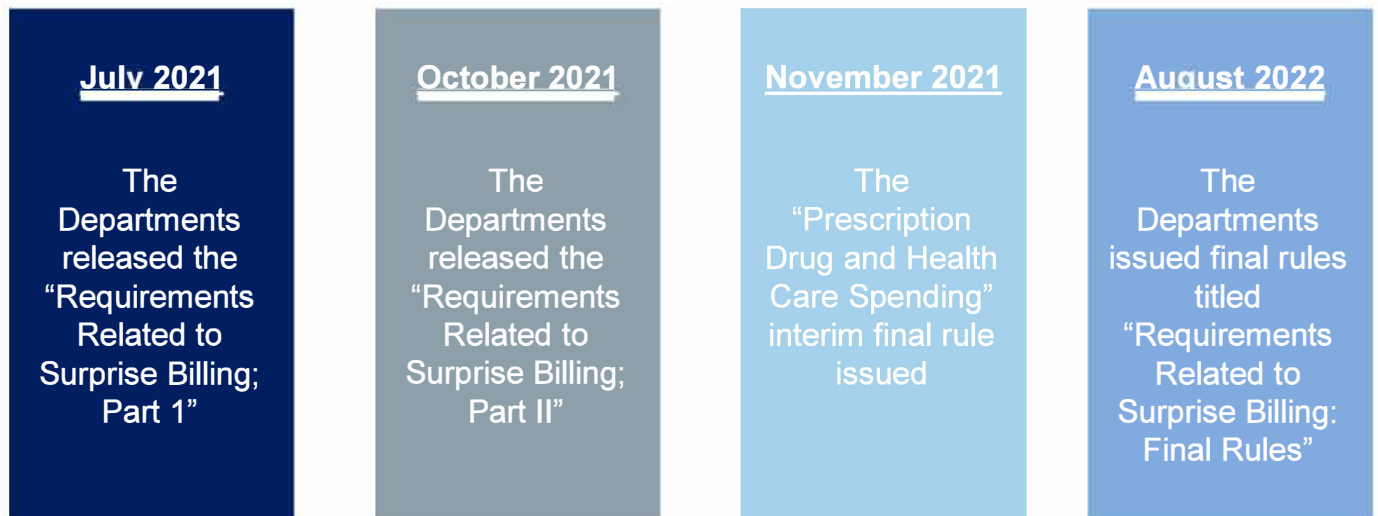

Experience includes:

- Behavioral Health
- HIPAA and Healthcare Privacy
- Healthcare & Life Sciences
- Healthcare White Collar Defense and Investigations
- Healthcare Investors and Lenders
- Healthcare Transactions
- Hospital-Based Systems
- Long-Term Care Facilities
- Healthcare Regulatory Compliance
- Outpatient and Ambulatory Services
- Digital Healthcare

Overview of the No Surprises Act

- Part of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021
- Took effect on January 1, 2022
- The No Surprises Act is intended to protect uninsured (self-pay) patients from:
 - Unexpected high medical bills for care received at out-of-network facilities
 - Out-of-network providers at in-network facilities
- A patient must be given a “Good Faith” estimate of what they may be charged before receiving an item or service

Timeline of the No Surprises Act

*U.S. Departments of Health and Human Services, Labor, and the Treasury (the Departments)

Holland & Knight

5

5

Penalties for Non-Compliance

- States will have primary role in enforcing No Surprises Act rules against health providers, with federal enforcement as back up
- Failure to comply with provisions of the No Surprises Act could subject insurers to significant fines of up to $100 per day for each individual affected by a violation
- In the case of providers, the federal government is authorized to impose civil monetary penalties of up to $10,000

Holland & Knight

6

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: The No Surprises Act

Also available as part of the eCourse

2023 Health Law eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the

34th Annual Health Law Conference session

"No Surprises Act"