

Arbitration Is Not Litigation

Making the Right Choice
In the Right Way

1

First – Know the Differences
There are Benefits and Disadvantages

2

The First Step

Litigation

- Suit is filed.
- Rules of Civil Procedure

Arbitration

- Contract Clause
- Agreement of the Parties

3

Procedure

Litigation

- Fixed rules of procedure
- Motions to modify

Arbitration

- Ad hoc or institution rules
- Modify by agreement and arbitrator consent

4

Decisions

Litigation

- Jury determines facts
- Judge applies law and enters judgment

Arbitration

- Arbitrator determines facts and renders the award

5

Scheduling and Hearing

Litigation

- Judge issues pretrial order
- Continuances and delays

Arbitration

- Parties suggest schedule
- Schedule and hearings are firm

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Arbitration is NOT Litigation

Also available as part of the eCourse

2023 Labor and Employment Law eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 30th Annual Labor and Employment Law Conference session "Arbitration is NOT Litigation"