The Set-Up

University officials sometimes discover that a tax position the school has taken may be incorrect.

Our panel will discuss ways to deal with these situations.

- If the tax position is wrong, what are the school's options?
- Do you fix it prospectively or is retroactive correction or even a voluntary disclosure required or recommended?
- Who should be on the team and in the circle?

Grist for the Mill

Here are some common areas where tax issues arise for universities:

- · Failure to make required tax filings and payments
- Compensation issues, including remote worker payroll issues
- · Complex new federal tax rules, including:
 - ➤ UBIT calculations (UBIT silos, NOLs, etc.)
 - Excess tax-exempt organization executive compensation (i.e., the "top five" calculation)
 - > Excise tax on endowment income calculations
