When you talk, you are only repeating what you already know. But if you listen, you may learn something new.

What is the Purpose?

- ~~• Inform them what the process will be like to see if they can participate~~
- ~~• Explain what my case is about to hear if anyone has questions about it~~
- ~~• Argue my facts to see if anyone disagrees with those arguments~~
- ~~• Introduce them to my client to see if anyone has opinions about him/her/what happened~~
- Discover biases about the process (civil or criminal)
- Discover opinions about the type of case
- Discover relevant life experiences
- Find core attitudes relevant to facts in case
- Discover the leaders
- They TALK – You LISTEN

Jury Selection

“This is the stage of the case we call voir dire. It’s a French term meaning to ‘speak the truth.’ This is the only part of the case where I will be able to speak directly to you and you will get to answer my questions. So it is very important to tell the truth.”

Don't do that ↑

Do this ↓

“This is the part of the case that you get to do the talking and we get to listen.”
