

Well, Well, Well ...

A Holistic Approach to Wellness through the GBP

Porter Wilson, Executive Director

September 7, 2023

1

Well of Knowledge

What are state agencies and higher education institutions required to do to encourage wellness among their employees?

- A. Allow 90 minutes a week “on the clock” for fitness activities
- B. Have a dedicated wellness liaison on staff
- C. Reward annual preventive visit and health assessment with 8 hours of leave

2

Well of Knowledge

What are state agencies and higher education institutions required to do to encourage wellness among their employees?

B. Have a dedicated wellness liaison on staff

State statute allows—but doesn't require—employers to offer some time and/or incentives for wellness. Ask your wellness liaison/coordinator what's available to you.

3

Going Upstream

4

Why Go Upstream?

Performance

5

Why Go Upstream?

Quality of life

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Well, Well, Well ... A Holistic Approach to Wellness through the Texas Employees Group Benefits Program

Also available as part of the eCourse

2023 Advanced Texas Administrative Law eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the

18th Annual Advanced Texas Administrative Law Seminar session

"Well, Well, Well ... A Holistic Approach to Wellness through the Texas Employees Group Benefits Program"