

GOVERNANCE: ESSENTIAL ORGANIZATIONAL POLICIES AND PROTECTIONS

41ST ANNUAL
NONPROFIT ORGANIZATIONS INSTITUTE
FEBRUARY 8-9, 2024

Jeffrey E. Sher
Fizer Beck
www.fizerbeck.com
jsher@fizerbeck.com

Darren B. Moore
Bourland, Wall & Wenzel, P.C.
www.bwwlaw.com
dmoore@bwwlaw.com

1

ORGANIZATIONAL POLICIES

- Organizational policies play the role of operational guidelines to protect and guide the organization, its decision makers, and its staff.

2

2

FORM 990 ASKS ABOUT ORGANIZATIONAL POLICIES

Core Policies

- Conflict of Interest Policy
- Whistleblower Policy
- Document Retention and Destruction Policy

“If/Then” Policies

- Chapter Policy
- Joint Venture Policy
- ~Executive Compensation Policy~

3

3

OTHER COMMON POLICIES

- | | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Investment Policy• Gift Acceptance Policy• Expense Reimbursement Policy• Confidentiality Policy• Code of Ethics• Privacy and Data Breach Policy | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Nondiscrimination Policy• Social Media and Publicity Policy• Insurance and Indemnification Policy• Charity Care Policy• Nepotism Policy |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

4

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

A fiduciary of a charity has a duty to . . . (b) address reasonably situations that involve the potential for self-dealing in which the interests of a fiduciary or related person may conflict with the interests of the charity...

- Restatement of the Law Charitable Nonprofit Organizations, § 2.02

Other than prohibited transactions (self-dealing, EBTs), the key is disclosure and how the board deals with the facts disclosed (i.e., disinterested review of the matter).

5

5

DRAFTING POINTS: STATE LAW CONSIDERATIONS

- Draft to encourage compliance with state statutes (e.g., TBOC § 22.230).
- Coordinate policy with provisions of organizational documents.

6

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Governance: Essential Organizational Policies and Protections

Also available as part of the eCourse

Answer Bar: How to Protect Your Nonprofit

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 41st Annual Nonprofit Organizations Institute session

"Governance: Essential Organizational Policies and Protections"