

FEBRUARY 2024

UT LAW | CLE

 TEXAS Law
The University of Texas at Austin
School of Law

MASTERCLASS: Social Media and Nonprofits

The balance and tension between marketing, legal and fundraising

Sara L. Hall, Chief Legal Officer, and Natalie Malone, Executive Counsel, ALSAC, the fundraising and awareness organization for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital

Nazli Tamer, Vice President, Strategic Campaigns, BerlinRosen, a results-driven communications firm

1

UT LAW | CLE

 TEXAS Law

How did we get here?

- 1989 limited linear TV options: 4 main networks, 7 cable networks
 - ABC NBC CBS PBS
- 2006 Increasing linear TV options: 6 main networks, +450 cable networks
 - ABC NBC CBS PBS CW FOX
- 2020 Streaming, cord-cutting with over 200+ streaming platforms

Hulu, Max, Disney + Peacock,

YouTube, Netflix, twitch, TikTok

Apple TV, Sling, Prime Video

You Tube TV, Spotify

2

Nonprofits Activities on Social Media

ADS

NATIVE
CONTENT

THIRD PARTY
CONTENT/FUNDRAISING

INFLUENCERS

PARTNER
ENGAGEMENT

3

INDUSTRY INSIGHT

What new things are you seeing brands doing online?

4

Social Media
– Everyone is doing it...
What's the worst that can happen?

5

“What’s the worst that can happen if we do?”

Sued by the FTC

Sued by a State Attorney General

Sued by a City or County official

Competitor sues for false advertising

Consumer class action filed

Trademark Infringement

All of the above

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: MASTER CLASS: Social Media and Nonprofits

Also available as part of the eCourse

2024 Nonprofit Organizations eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 41st Annual Nonprofit Organizations Institute session
"MASTER CLASS: Content Strategy and Nonprofits"