

House Bill 3 and Its Impact on Students with Disabilities

Colleen Potts and Olivia Lee
Disability Rights Texas

1

About Disability Rights Texas

- Part of the national Protection and Advocacy (P&A) System
- Established in 1977 through federal law
- Nonprofit legal firm
- Protect and advocate for the rights of Texans with disabilities ensuring their equal participation in society
- Serve Texans of all ages with a wide variety of disabilities

2

Services Offered

- Provide direct legal assistance to people with disabilities whose rights are threatened or violated
- Protect rights of individuals and groups of people with disabilities through courts and justice system
- Inform policy makers about how issues impact people with disabilities
- Educate people with disabilities and family members about their rights
- Make referrals to programs and services

Agenda

- House Bill 3
 - Its Impact on students with disabilities
 - Proactive steps
- Related bills
 - Senate Bill 133
 - House Bill 473

House Bill 3

- By Representative Burrows.
- Passed in regular 88th legislative session and became effective on September 1, 2023.
- The goal is to improve the physical security and safety of public schools and charter schools.

Armed Security Guard

- At least one armed security officer at every campus during school hours.
- If schools cannot hire a separate officer, then someone else already on campus must act as a security officer.
- If not commissioned peace officer, then cannot perform law enforcement duties, like making arrests. But there is an exception allowing them to if there is an emergency that poses a threat of death or serious bodily injury to a person.

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: House Bill 3 and Its Impact on Students with Disabilities

Also available as part of the eCourse
2024 School Law eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 39th Annual School Law Conference session
"House Bill 3 and Its Impact on Students with Disabilities"