SECURE Act

Setting Every Community Up for Retirement Enhancement

- Passed at the end of 2019
- Followed by the SECURE Act 2.0 (passed 12/29/2022)
 - Securing a Strong Retirement Act of 2022
 - Retirement Improvement and Savings Enhancement to Supplement Healthy Investments for the Nest Egg Act (RISE & SHINE Act)
 - Enhancing American Retirement Now Act (EARN Act)
- Eliminated RMD "stretch" for many beneficiaries
 - Generally, the inherited IRA was distributed over lifetime of IRA beneficiary
 - Now, most beneficiaries must withdraw all IRA funds (and pay applicable income taxes) within ten years of IRA owner's death (with certain exceptions)
- New RMD dates:
 - SECURE Act
 - RMDs begin at age 72 (previously 70 ½) if account owner turned 70 ½ after Jan 1, 2020
 - SECURE Act 2.0
 - RMDs begin at age 73 (2022), and 75 (2033)
- Applies to IRAs inherited January 1, 2020 +

IRA Beneficiary Types

Non-Designated Beneficiaries (NDBs)

- Estate, charity or non-qualified trust
 - “Non-qualified trust”: not irrevocable as of IRA account holder’s death, not valid under state law and beneficiaries are not specifically identified in trust document
- Withdrawal rules:
 - If account owner was younger than 72: 5 years
 - If account owner was 72+: RMDs over decedent’s life expectancy
 - a/k/a “ghost expectancy rule” or “at least as rapidly rule”

IRA Beneficiary Types

Non-Designated Beneficiaries (NDBs)

IRA / 401(k) / etc. beneficiary designations on the forms/website of the custodian/investment advisor supersede estate planning documents (wills, trusts, etc.)

Example:

- Family member meets with SNT trustee, establishes either inter vivos or testamentary joinder for loved one with disability, passes away
- Family member didn’t name SNT as beneficiary, selecting their estate instead
- NDB rules apply (5 year or “ghost expectancy”)
- Best practice tip: encourage grantors/family members to double check their estate plan and beneficiary designations on all IRAs, 401(k)s, etc.

Potential solutions:

- Petition to court (may not be binding to IRS)
- Private Letter Ruling (costly)
