BEYOND THE FONT WARS

WORD PROCESSING TIPS FOR FORMATTING APPELLATE BRIEFS

Doug Gladden
ATTORNEY | WRITS & APPEALS
Rosenthal Kalabus & Therrian
972-369-0577
doug@texasdefensefirm.com

1

---

30 minutes to talk about…

- Using Styles
- Quick Tips on
  - Autocorrect
  - Spacing
- Marking Citations

/////

2

Puttin' on the Styles

Styles

- What they are
- Why they matter

What are Styes

- Preset Formatting

- Microsoft Support:
  What are Styles?

  Built-in styles are combinations of formatting characteristics that you can apply to text to quickly change its appearance.

Why Styles Matter

- Set it and forget it
- Uniform Updating
- Table of Contents
- PDF Bookmarks

Title search: Beyond the Font Wars: Word Processing Tips for Formatting Appellate Briefs

Also available as part of the eCourse
The Science of Readable Legal Writing

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 2024 Robert O. Dawson Conference on Criminal Appeals session
"Beyond the Font Wars: Word Processing Tips for Formatting Appellate Briefs"