

The University of Texas School of Law

31st Annual
Labor and Employment Law
Conference

May 30-31, 2024

1

Developments in Wage/Hour Compliance and FLSA Regulation

Are You Ready?

Littler[®]

2

Presented By

KIM MIERS

Office Managing Shareholder
Littler Mendelson, P.C.
Austin, TX

3

3

Agenda

- Department of Labor Trends
- Legislative Trends
- Department of Labor Rules
- Compliance Traps – What's New

4

DOL Wage and Hour Division – 2023 Recap

- $274M recovered for 163k workers
 - $1,297: average back wages for each employee
- 955 child labor investigations
 - $8M in penalties

DOL Wage and Hour Division – 2023 Recap

- Is Your Industry at Risk?
 - Health Care: > $31.8M wages/penalties
 - Construction: $35.5M wages/penalties
 - Food Service: $29.6M wages/penalties
 - Building Services: $12M wages/penalties
 - Retail: $8.3M wages/penalties
 - Agriculture: $6.8M wages/penalties

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Developments In Wage-Hour Compliance and FLSA Litigation

Also available as part of the eCourse

2024 Federal Employment Law and Policy Updates

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 31st Annual Labor and Employment Law Conference session "Developments In Wage-Hour Compliance and FLSA Litigation"