

Ethics Update: What Employment Lawyers (and their Clients) Need to Know About Attorney-Client Privilege and other Ethics Issues

Presented by Dennis P. Duffy

2017

The Election of a New President Trumps Everything. . .

BakerHostetler

What a BEAUTIFUL CAR!
TOO BAD I CAN'T PUT MY NAME ON IT...

HEY, WAIT A MINUTE! . . .

I'M THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES!!!!
I CAN DO ANYTHING I WANT!!!

Much, much Better! . . . Classy! . . .
Now, . . . about that Wall. . .

3

BakerHostetler

Assume the following hypothetical. . . *

The President and the Pope . . .

BakerHostetler

The President...

BakerHostetler

★ TRUMP ★
FOR PRESIDENT 2016

and the Pope. . .

BakerHostetter

The Wall Litigation

BakerHostetter

- In August 2017, Walls-R-Us, a Texas construction company with offices in Austin and Greenville, South Carolina, ramped up hiring 20% in anticipation of a Trump Presidency (and a successful bid to construct the HUGE and BEAUTIFUL wall on the Texas-Mexico border).
- Walls-R-Us is a U.S. subsidiary of a Mexican-based company, Rio Grande Construction.
- Trump Administration approves the Great Wall of Texas and Walls-R-Us is awarded a no-bid contract to construct it.

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Ethics Update: What Employment Lawyers (and Their Clients) Need to Know About Attorney-Client Privilege and Other Ethics Issues

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 24th Annual Labor and Employment Law Conference session
"Ethics for Employment Lawyers"