Fair Hearings: What are they and why do we care?

21st Annual Estate Planning, Guardianship and Elder Law Conference

Shari Nichols-HHSC Administrative Law Judge
Allison Eberhart-HHSC Associate Director of Litigation

Introduction

The Fair and Fraud Hearings Department of the Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) Appeals Division, receives appeal requests from applicants and clients contesting actions taken regarding benefits and services of various programs. These include the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) (formerly known as the Food Stamp Program), Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), all Medicaid-funded services, and other agency programs that are required by state or federal law, or rules, to provide the right to a fair hearing. Hearings officers conduct hearings, consider evidence and issue decisions in accordance with rules, regulations and state and federal law.
