

Coronavirus Goes to Court

QUENTIN BROGDON

Crain Brogdon Rogers, LLP
Dallas, Texas

214-598-1009 Cell

QBROGDON@CBRLAWFIRM.COM

1

Coronavirus

2

- In the Wake of Coronavirus:

- 1. Quarantines.
- 2. Shuttered businesses.
- 3. Market crashes.
- 4. Litigation.

3

- Four Types of Litigation:

- 1. Businesses with captive populations.
- 2. Employees v. employers.
- 3. Business disruptions.
- 4. Claims against insurers.

4

Unprecedented and Unexpected?

5

The Domestication of Farm Animals

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Coronavirus Goes to Court

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 2020 Coronavirus Goes to Court session
"Coronavirus Goes to Court"