Introduction and Overview

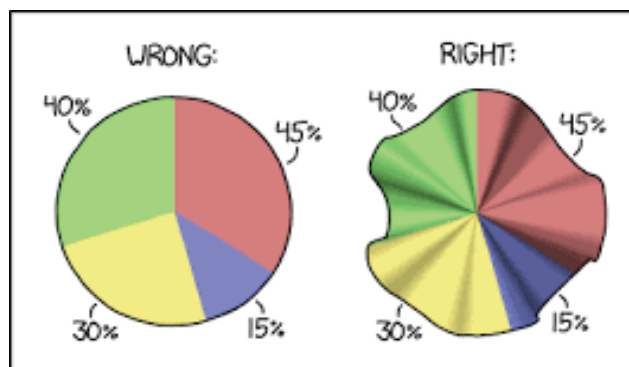

- Anecdotal evidence and analogies to IRS statistics indicate most LLCs have one or two members
- Program materials
 - Agreements for “simple” LLCs may not be so simple to draft; models are not forms to copy and fill in blanks
 - Narrative discussion of drafting issues and explanation of provisions in model agreements
 - Three model agreements:
 - Manager-managed, multi-member
 - Member-managed, multi-member
 - Member-managed, single-member
 - Models are not forms to copy and fill in the blanks

Members, Percentages, and Assignees

There are three kinds of people in this world, those that are good at math and those that are not.

(Member A has 40%, member B has 45%, member C has 30%, member D has 15%...)

HOW TO MAKE A PIE CHART IF YOUR PERCENTAGES DON'T ADD UP TO 100
