Alexander Reid and Kyle ZumBerge

Objectives

- Discuss the many issues that an institution may face when departments submit a purported lease, license, or services agreement with multiple components.
- Is it a related lease?
- Does it qualify for the Rental Exclusion?
- Is it a license, and what are the implications distinguishing royalties from rents and services income?
- Does it involve personal property or services?
- And what about debt financing?
- Also take a look at book UBI that was brought to life by the Inflation Reduction Act.

UBIT Background

- Prior to 1950, all income destined for charitable purposes was not subject to federal tax. (Destination of Income Test)
- In 1950, after cries from for-profit businesses about unfair competition Congress enacted new federal income tax regime (i.e. UBIT) for taxexempt entities. (NYU Macaroni Case)
- Revenue Act of 1951 expanded scope of UBIT to include public colleges and universities. (UT now subject to UBIT)
