

Choice of Entity Fundamentals & Workshop

---

UT Law CLE July 10, 2024 Austin

1

Today's Panel of Contributors

- Dan G. Baucum, FBFK Law - Plano
  - William D. Elliott, Elliott Thomason & Gibson - Dallas
  - Christi Mondrik, Mondrik & Associates - Austin
  - Andy Tiwari, CJMA Business Law and Litigation – San Antonio
-

2

Who's Your Client?

---

Know your client and their business objectives

3

Know Your Client's Business Objectives

---

4

4

Rules of Professional Responsibility

- Represent an individual?
    - Multi-party representation
    - Spouses
  - Represent the entity?
  - Prior client relationship?
  - Informed consent?
-

5

Start with the client's objectives

Quality business planning requires identifying one or more specific client objectives, not just "I want to form or reorganize my business to make more money." A non-exclusive list of factors may include one or more of the following:

- Allowing workers, investors, or family to participate (stakeholders)
  - Type of Business
  - Asset protection
  - Exit strategy
-

6

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Choice of Entity Fundamentals

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 2024 Choice of Entity Fundamentals session
"Choice of Entity Fundamentals: Part One"