The screenshot shows the website for the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals. The browser address bar displays www.txcourts.gov/cca. The page header includes the text "Texas Judicial BRANCH" and a navigation menu with items: Home, Courts, Rules & Forms, Organizations, Publications & Training, Programs & Services, Judicial Data, eFile Texas, and Media. Below the header, the page title is "Court of Criminal Appeals" and there is a search bar for "Appellate Case #". A red button labeled "FIND MY CASE" is visible. An announcement box states: "The Beyond the Bench: Law, Justice, and Communities Summit Toolkit is now available." The "CCA HOME" section contains a list of links, with "Practice Before the Court" circled in red. Other links include "Emergency Filing Information", "125th Anniversary Celebration", "About the Court", "Texas Criminal Justice Integrity Unit", and "Judicial & Court Personnel Training Fund Careers". The "CASE INFORMATION" section lists "Case Search", "Document Search", "Events", "Case Submission Schedules", "Case Mail", and "Hand Down List (Orders, Opinions & Statements)". The "WELCOME TO THE TEXAS COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS" section features a photograph of the court's members and a circular logo celebrating the "125th Anniversary OF TEXAS Est. 1891". Below the photo, text reads: "The Court of Criminal Appeals is Texas' highest court for criminal cases. The Court consists of a Presiding Judge and eight Judges. They are elected by the voters of the entire state, and they hold their offices for terms of six years. The Court sits in Austin, near the Capitol. From time to time it may sit in other cities to hear cases."
