Overview

- The Basics: Types of relationships & acceptable proof
- But my case is special! What to do when primary sources aren't available?
- Notes on specific countries, specific relationships & practice pointers

THE BASICS

Begin at the very beginning...

The Basics: Types of relationships & acceptable proof

- Burden of proof (preponderance of the evidence) is on the Petitioner!
- Always start with primary sources!
- Parent/Child:
 - Vital records: birth certificates
 - May also include: marriage certificates, divorce decrees & adoption records

The Basics: Types of relationships & acceptable proof

- Spouse:
 - Vital records: marriage certificates & divorce decrees
 - Also consider: bona fides, culturally appropriate considerations
