

Jevic in Perspective: The Supreme Court and Our Narrowed Bankruptcy Code

Ronald J. Mann
Columbia Law School

Jevic High Points

- Percolating development of “structured dismissals”
- SCT rejects intrusion on creditors’ rights
- OSG supports objecting creditors
- Is there anything new about this?

- Supreme Court's 86 Bankruptcy Code decisions
- Case studies of seven early "close" cases
- Archive of Justices' papers
 - Grant from NCBJ
 - Online at bksct.net

The SCT's Narrow Way

- 86 cases in 36 years (2.4/year)
 - 3.5% of all civil cases
- 37% of decisions (32/86) are "broad"
 - 25% (5/20) in close cases (3-4 dissents)

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in over 30 legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Jevic in Perspective: The Supreme Court and Our Narrowed Bankruptcy Code

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 36th Annual Jay L. Westbrook Bankruptcy Conference session "SCOTUS Judicial Decision Making in Bankruptcy Cases"