Governmental Immunity Under State Law

Fighting "city hall" remains quite a challenge in Texas in light of well-settled Supreme Court authority that declares a "high presumption" of governmental immunity from suit. Still, there are many waivers of immunity and this presentation discusses the status of immunity and waivers in the context of tort, contract, and statutory claims against the State and its political subdivisions.

William S. Helfand, Lewis Brisbois, Houston, TX

3:45 p.m. .50 hr

The Evolving Law of Federal Official Immunity

Over the past few years, the Supreme Court has continued to expand the scope of various official immunity doctrines, even as a growing array of judges and academic commentators have called for revisiting the circumstances in which individual government officers can be held personally liable for unlawful conduct. Hear an update both on the key cases in the field and the prospects for potentially dramatic reforms thereto.

Stephen Vladeck, The University of Texas School of Law, Austin, TX

4:15 p.m. .50 hr

9:45 a.m. .50 hr

Advocacy Practice and Theory for the New Millennium

No one can deny the practice of law has changed dramatically in recent years, but many still advocate like it's 1999. Learn new tricks and tips on how to advocate effectively in today's courtrooms.

Tracy W. McCormack, The University of Texas School of Law, Austin, TX

10:15 a.m. Break

10:30 a.m. .50 hr

Error Preservation Ambushes: Infliction and Prevention

We can raise many complaints for the first time on appeal ... or when it is too late for the non-complaining party to do anything about it. These complaints involve jurisdiction, standing, summary judgment practice, experts, damages, the charge, and attorney's fees, just to name a few areas. Identify these areas, get suggestions about how to pre-empt your opponent from ambushing you with such complaints, and hear ideas about ambushing your opponent, while taking care to avoid a self-inflicted wound.

Steven K. Hayes, Attorney at Law, Fort Worth, TX

11:00 a.m. .75 hr

Supreme Court of Texas Panel

Hear a candid conversation among the Justices about what is new at the Court, the state of the docket, and ways practitioners can improve their chances of obtaining favorable relief for their clients.
