He is the past chair of the Association of American Law Schools' Section on Commercial and Consumer Law, and a member of the American College of Bankruptcy, International Insolvency Institute and American Law Institute. Prior to teaching, he practiced as an associate with the firm of Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering in Washington, D.C., specializing in bankruptcy and litigation, and was a law clerk to Judge Irving L. Goldberg of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. Professor Janger's Akard Lecture is entitled Realization, Option Value and Governance in Chapter 11. The idea is to extend concepts developed with Melissa Jacoby in Ice Cube Bonds and on my own in The Logic and Limits of Liens, and to use them as a frame for commenting on the ABI Commission Report as a template for Chapter 11 reform. The John C. Akard Distinguished Lectureship Program was endowed by the generous gifts of many members of the Texas bankruptcy bar in honor of Judge John C. Akard (retired), a 1957 UT Law graduate who served with great distinction for 14 years as the U.S. Bankruptcy Judge in the Northern District of Texas, sitting in Lubbock and throughout much of West Texas. The first Akard Lecture was delivered in 2001 by Professor Elizabeth Warren of Harvard Law School, and formerly of The University of Texas School of Law. Edward J. Janger, David M.
