LUNCHEON PRESENTATION

12:05 pm 0.50 hr	Why Good Writing Matters: A View from the Bench Good legal writing helps the court understand what you're asking for, and why you're asking for it. Hear straight from the bench about what happens when papers are well written, and what can happen when they are not. Hon. H. DeWayne "Cooter" Hale, U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Northern District of Texas - Dallas, TX
12:35 pm	Break
12:50 pm 0.75 hr	Organization: Giving the Reader a Roadmap Sensibly ordering your writing is important, but not as important as ensuring that your reader knows the order you've chosen. Convey that order by using up-front conclusions and summaries, headings (both topical and explanatory), bullets, transitions, and connectors. Kamela Bridges, The University of Texas School of Law - Austin, TX
1:35 pm 0.75 hr	Persuading with Style In legal writing, exaggeration, hyperbole, and sarcasm don't persuade, and neither do bold italics, ALL-CAPS, or exclamation marks!!! Legal writers have more effective tools. Learn sentence- and word-level writing techniques ranging from punctuation to classical rhetoric that legal writers can easily add to their tools for persuasive writing. Wayne Schiess, The University of Texas School of Law - Austin, TX

2:30 pm 0.50 hr	You've Got Questions Attendees anonymously submit a question related to writing, and the presenters answer them. Kamela Bridges, The University of Texas School of Law - Austin, TX Wayne Schiess, The University of Texas School of Law - Austin, TX
3:00 pm 0.50 hr	Lawyers are Editors Bad writing becomes good and good writing becomes great only through editing. Get advice for improving your editing techniques, creating and using an effective editing checklist, implementing a thorough editing process, and editing in a time crunch. Kamela Bridges, The University of Texas School of Law - Austin, TX
3:30 pm 0.50 hr ethics	Name that Penalty (Part II) More consequences for lawyers who fail to cite, omit binding law, blather on for pages, and just plain write poorly in this entertaining and informative multiple-choice quiz. Wayne Schiess, The University of Texas School of Law - Austin, TX
