

REGULATION X

PROTECTS CONSUMERS WHO
SEEK OR HAVE A MORTGAGE
LOAN

- Implements the Real Estate Settlement Practices Act
- (12 U.S.C. §§ 2601 et seq.)
- CFPB Administers
- Generally 12 C.F.R. Part 1024

REG X BASICS

- Applies to “federally related mortgage loans.”
 - Basically means residential mortgage loans. 12 C.F.R. 1024.2
- Regulates many loan origination and mortgage servicing functions, including:
 - Servicing Disclosures
 - Escrow Accounts
 - Force-Placed Insurance
 - Error Resolution
 - Obtaining Mortgage Loan Information
 - Loss Mitigation

REG X BASICS

DODD FRANK RESPA AMENDMENTS: Servicer Obligations

- * correct errors asserted by mortgage loan borrowers. 12 C.F.R. § 1024.35.
- * provide certain information requested by borrowers. 12 C.F.R. § 1024.36.
- * provide protections to borrowers re: force-placed insurance. 12 C.F.R. § 1024.37.
- * establish reasonable policies and procedures to achieve specific objectives. 12 C.F.R. § 1024.38.
- * Early intervention requirements for assisting delinquent borrowers. 12 C.F.R. § 1024.41.
- * establish policies and procedures for providing delinquent borrowers with continuity of contact with servicer personnel capable of performing certain functions. 12 C.F.R. § 1024.40.
- * Reg. X also establishes procedures for the review of borrowers' applications for available loss mitigation options, and modifies and streamlines certain existing servicing-related provisions of Regulation X.

REG Z Basics

(DODD-FRANK TILA AMENDMENTS)

Servicers must:

- * Provide periodic billing statements (PBS) that provide certain specific information. 12 C.F.R. §1026.41.
- * Provide notice of interest rate adjustments at least 60 and not more than 120 days before payment change; 12 C.F.R. §1026.20(c)(2).
- * Ensure prompt payment crediting 12 C.F.R. §1026.36(c)(1)(i) and payoff statements 12 C.F.R. §1026.34(a)(9).

USING RESPA AND TILA IN BANKRUPTCY

Send written “Notice of Error” (NOE) or “Request for Information” (RFI)

- * to get information about the mortgage accounting and ownership in connection with claim review, analysis, and objection; including using RFIs as:
- * alternative way to get information that debtor would usually get in the Periodic Billing Statement (PBS) (but-for the bankruptcy exception to PBS requirement).
 - * PBS are suspended in during the bankruptcy
- * Using RFI to identify owner and holder of the loan for purposes of effectuating service, for example, for a lien-stripping AP.
- * Evaluating escrow issues.
- * Resolving claim issues, including establishing basis for fee-shifting and damages for successful claim objections.

Does the QWR Still Exist

- * Not clearly distinguishable from a Request for Information (RFI) or Notice of Error (NOE) (implementing Reg. X adds RFIs and NOEs).
- * Applies to correspondence that contains both NOE and RFI.
- * “Hybrid” correspondence still qualifies for statutory damages remedies. (But see Spokeo Inc. v. Robins, No. 13-1339, 2016 WL 2842447 (May 16, 2016)- Held that a mere alleged procedural violation, absent an actual concrete injury, does not confer standing on a plaintiff alleging a statutory violation under the Fair Credit Reporting Act)
- * RESPA Cite: 12 U.S.C. §2605(e)(1)(B).

CFPB OFFICIAL INTERPRETATION:

“A qualified written request is a written notice a borrower provides to request a servicer either correct an error relating to the servicing of a mortgage loan or to request information relating to the servicing of the mortgage loan. A qualified written request is not required to include both types of requests. For example, a qualified written request may request information relating to the servicing of a mortgage loan but not assert that an error relating to the servicing of a loan has occurred.”
