What is the Statute of Frauds?

- Statute
 - Actually 2 statutes
- Requires signed written documentation for enforcement of some agreements
 - But not all agreements
- Applies to most oil and gas transactions

What is the Statute of Frauds?

- Originally to prevent "fraud"
 - Some agreements are too important for oral contracts
 - To avoid the risk of fraudulent oral contracts, signed written documentation was required
- In oil and gas transactions, the focus is typically on the requirement for a clear written description of the deal
 - What property is involved?
 - What are the terms of the agreement?
