

EFFECTIVE PARTNERING

PANELISTS

Kenneth E. Broughton, Reed Smith LLP
Brandy L. Copley, GE Capital Energy Financial Services
Roderick Duncan Hardie, Exterran
C.E. Rhodes, Baker Hughes Incorporated

MODERATOR

Collin J. Cox, Yetter Coleman LLP

2017 Corporate Counsel Institute
The University of Texas School of Law

OVERVIEW

- I. Aligning Incentives
- II. Serving with Integrity
- III. Budgeting and Billing
- IV. Increased Expectations for Competence, Service, Value, Staffing
- V. Communication
- VI. Collaboration

ALIGNING INCENTIVES

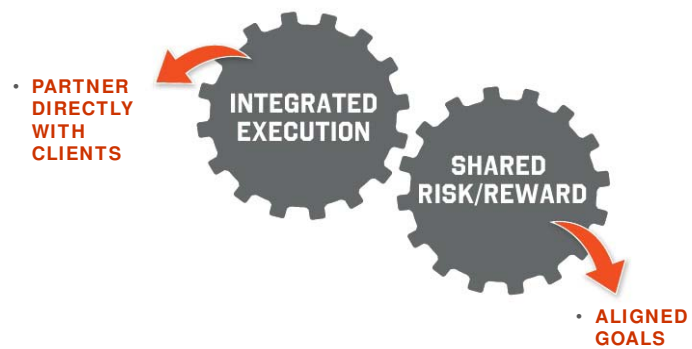

Many clients want lower risk profiles:

- Litigation Exposure
- Financial reporting requirements
reducing risk profile among many companies

3

ALIGNING INCENTIVES

4

ALIGNING INCENTIVES

Understand the factors that impact a client's business:

- Company Culture
- Business Objectives
- Market Conditions
- Competitors
- Local Laws

5

SERVING WITH INTEGRITY

TIMELINESS

- Delivering service on an agreed upon time frame.
- If you can't deliver on agreed time frame, be honest and have a ready alternative solution.

EARLY CASE RESOLUTION/ MANAGEMENT

- Achieve what is best for the client, not the firm.

TAKE OWNERSHIP

- In every situation, own the matter, the mistake, the follow-up and your success

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Effective Partnering

Also available as part of the eCourse
2017 Corporate Counsel eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 39th Annual Corporate Counsel Institute session
"Effective Partnering"