

Patent Valuation and Due Diligence in Negotiation

Advanced Patent Law Institute, November 3, 2017

Patent Valuation and Due Diligence in Negotiation

ADVANCED PATENT LAW INSTITUTE
KEITH WITEK, ABHA DIVINE AND JAMES WOODS
NOVEMBER 3, 2017

General Topics

- Building Strategic Value
- Creating Optimal Portfolios
- Start-up Strategy
- Buying IP
- Selling IP
- Creating New Business Units
- M&A Value: Assets v. People v. IP Value

Patent Valuation and Due Diligence in Negotiation

Advanced Patent Law Institute, November 3, 2017

Building Strategic Value

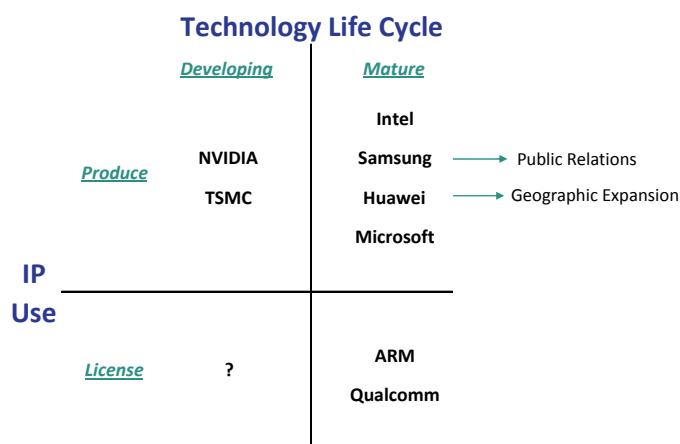

Reasons to Patent

- Ensure Retention of Market Share and Margin
- Derive Offensive Revenue
- Ensure a Defensive Stance
- Drive Standards
- Enable IP R&D / Partnerships
- Expand into a New Market
- Expand into a New Geography
- Prevent Piracy / Copying / Theft
- Improve Public Relations

Value = PRV + IPLD + BMP + DR - Costs
PRV = Public Relations Value
IPLD = IP Lawsuit Defense
BMP = Business/Margin Protection
DR = Direct Revenue
Costs = Costs to innovate, file, maintain portfolio

3

Building Strategic Value

How do broad cross-licensing activities affect value?

4

Patent Valuation and Due Diligence in Negotiation

Advanced Patent Law Institute, November 3, 2017

Creating Optimal Portfolios

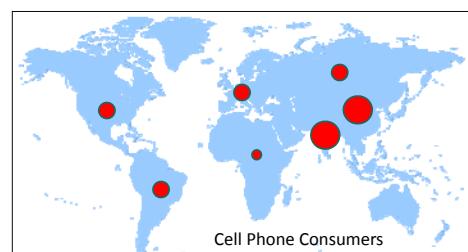

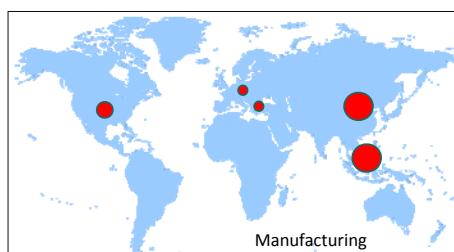

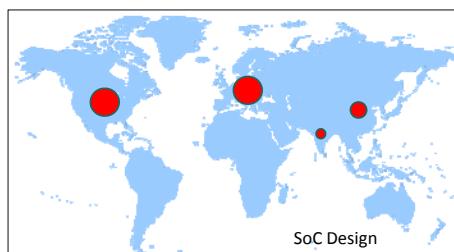

Typical Drivers

- Type of Technology
- Location of Competitors
- Location of Key Ecosystem Partners
- Location of Consumers / Sales
- Strength of Local IP Laws
- Cost Constraints

5

Creating Optimal Portfolios

Semiconductor Market

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Patent Valuation and Due Diligence in Negotiation

Also available as part of the eCourse

2017 Advanced Patent Law \(Austin\) eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 22nd Annual Advanced Patent Law Institute session
"Patent Valuation and Due Diligence in Negotiation"