Using Data Analytics for Patent Prosecution

Christa Sanford
Deputy Department Chair – Intellectual Property
Baker Botts LLP

BAKER BOTTS

---

Agenda

What Data is Available?

How is Data Useful?

What Tools are Available?

What Data Is Available?

Examiner Data

- Trends/Propensity
- Rejection Information

Art Unit Data

- Trends/Propensity
- Rejection Information

PAIR Data

- Individual Record Information

How Is Data Useful?

| | |
|---|---|
| Effective Drafting | Setting Expectations |
| Response Strategy | Appeal Strategy |

Title search: Using Data Analytics for Patent Prosecution

Also available as part of the eCourse
2018 Advanced Patent Law (Austin) eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 23rd Annual Advanced Patent Law Institute session
"Getting Into the Examiner's Head: Interviews, Insight, and Analytics as Tools to Aim and Focus Your Prosecution"