

Ethical Investigations in Today's

#WOKE

Non-Profit Workplace

by
DeDe Church

90%

90% of employees
who eventually file
suit initially report
concerns internally

National Whistleblowers Center

Cases

1.) Jury rejected claim of retaliation because investigation was well-documented. Lyons v. Denton ISD, No. 15-05355-158 (158th Judicial Dist. Court, Denton County, TX).

2) Chrysler Ops Mgr wins sexual harassment case. Investigation was not thorough or timely; plaintiff not interviewed; no written report; investigation took 5 months; and Chrysler took no temporary actions to address situation pending investigation. Rice v. FCA USA LLC, Calif. Ct. App., (Jan. 2018).

3) 5th Circuit cautioned against allowing a person with a self-serving retaliatory motive to be in charge of an investigation. Fisher v. Lufkin Industries, Inc., 847 F.3d 752 (5th Cir. 2017)

5

Anything BIG happen
in workplace harassment lately?

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Ethical Investigations in Today's Woke Nonprofit Workplace

Also available as part of the eCourse

Answer Bar: How to Protect Your Nonprofit

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 36th Annual Nonprofit Organizations Institute session
"Investigations in Today's Woke Workplace"