

Lawyer Wellness in a COVID-19 World

Presented by Erica Grigg, JD, TLAP Attorney

TEXAS LAWYERS'
ASSISTANCE PROGRAM
1-800-343-TLAP

STATE BAR OF TEXAS

1

Stress
Anxiety Depression
Burnout

Secondary Trauma
Alcohol / Substance Abuse
Cognitive Impairment
Suicide
Gambling and other process
addictions

Major Problems for Attorneys

2

How Graduate Students Rank for Anxiety

Law Students: 96%
Medical Students: 70%
Graduate Students: 43%

3

2015 ABA Study of Almost 13,000 Attorneys: Attorney Mental Health Issues

4

2015 ABA Study of 13,000 Attorneys: Problem Drinking for Attorneys

5

Depression

According to a 1991 Johns Hopkins University study of depression in 105 professions, lawyers ranked number one in the incidence of depression.

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Lawyer Wellness

Also available as part of the eCourse

Lawyer Wellness

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 2020 Lawyer Wellness session

"Lawyer Wellness "