- 1 Constitution or Texas Constitution requires the consent of the
- 2 parties for the proceeding to be conducted as a remote proceeding,
- 3 the prosecutor and defendant must each consent for the proceeding
- 4 to be conducted as a remote proceeding. If the prosecutor or
- 5 defendant does not consent, the proceeding may not be held as a
- 6 remote proceeding.
- 7 (c) For a jury trial that is to be conducted as a remote
- 8 proceeding, a court shall:
- 9 (1) consider on the record any motion or objection
- 10 related to proceeding with the trial not later than the seventh day
- 11 before the trial date, except that if the motion or objection is
- 12 made later than the seventh day before the trial date, the court
- 13 must consider the motion or objection on the record as soon as
- 14 practicable; and
- 15 (2) ensure all prospective jurors have access to the
- 16 technology necessary to participate in the remote proceeding.
- 17 (d) If a remote proceeding is conducted away from the
- 18 court's usual location, the court must provide reasonable notice to
- 19 the public and an opportunity to observe the proceeding.
- 20 (e) The Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial
- 21 System shall provide guidance and assistance to the extent possible
- 22 to a court conducting a remote proceeding.
- 23 (f) For purposes of any law requiring notice or citation of
- 24 the time and place for a proceeding, notice of the remote means by
- 25 which the proceeding will be conducted and the method for accessing
