

SCHELL BRAY PLLC
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS AT LAW

Case Study on Charitability, Structure and Compliance: Affordable Housing

The University of Texas School of Law
39th Annual Nonprofit Organizations Institute
January 14, 2022

Ed Chaney, Schell Bray PLLC
Walter Moreau, Foundation Communities

- How it's Done
- History: IRS struggles with LIHTC
- Affordable Housing and Charitability
- Private Benefit and Inurement in Complex Structures
- General Lessons for the Nonprofit Sector

FOUNDATION COMMUNITIES

creating housing where families succeed

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Case Study on Charitability, Structure and Compliance: Affordable Housing

Also available as part of the eCourse

2022 Nonprofit Organizations eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 39th Annual Nonprofit Organizations Institute session

"(3:15 p.m.) Case Study on Charitability, Structure and Compliance: Affordable Housing"