

NEW TEXAS BUSINESS COURT

302563181_1

1

Introduction

- House Bill No. 19 authored by Reps. Murr, Leach, Landgraf, Meyer and Lujan and co-authored by 72 other House members and sponsored in Senate by Senator Bryan Hughes
- Adds new Chapter 25A to the Texas Government Code establishing a new statutory court for the State of Texas called a “business court”
- HB 19 is effective September 1, 2023, but the business court would be created as of September 1, 2024
- Bill had strong support of Texas Governor, Lt. Governor and House Speaker

2

2

- Business court is composed of 11 geographic divisions, which match the 11 Administrative Judicial Regions
 - BUT six divisions (largely more rural regions) would be abolished on September 1, 2026, if not reauthorized and funded through additional legislative appropriations in 2025 Texas Legislature
- Five divisions will start operations on September 1, 2024, and remaining six divisions, assuming they are reappropriated, will start operations on September 1, 2026
- Initial five divisions are composed of counties in which Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio are located as well as the surrounding counties
 - These five divisions are First, Third, Fourth, Eighth and Eleventh Business Court Divisions

Qualification of Business Court Judges

- To qualify to be appointed as a business court judge, a person must be:
 - At least 35 years of age
 - U.S. citizen and resident of a county within the division of the business court to which the judge is appointed for at least five years before appointment
 - A licensed attorney in Texas who has ten or more years of experience in (a) practicing complex business civil litigation, (b) practicing business transaction law, (c) serving as a judge of a court in Texas with civil jurisdiction or (d) any combination of experience described in (a)–(c)
 - Must not have had his or her license to practice law revoked, suspended or subject to a probated suspension

Appointment of Business Court Judges

- Texas Governor appoints business court judges, with advice and consent of Texas Senate
- Governor required to appoint judges for First, Third, Fourth, Eighth and Eleventh Business Court Divisions ASAP after September 1, 2023
- Governor appoints judges to remaining six divisions between July 1, 2026, and September 1, 2026
- Two judges are appointed to the First, Third, Fourth, Eighth and Eleventh Business Court Divisions, with one judge being appointed to each of the remaining divisions
- Business court judges serve terms of two years, beginning on September 1 of even numbered years
- Business court judges may be reappointed

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: New Texas Business Court

Also available as part of the eCourse

2023 LLCs, LPs and Partnerships eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 32nd Annual LLCs, LPs and Partnerships session

"Texas Legislative Update for Partnerships and LLCs"