

How to Avoid Mortgage Fraud

Walt Junker
United States Attorney's Office
Northern District of Texas
Dallas Division

1

DISCLAIMER

- The information I give you today is my own subjective opinion and is not the official position of my current or former employers.
- Nothing I say today is legal advice or binding on any law enforcement agency.
- Nothing I say here today relates to any open and pending cases.

2

KINDS OF SCAMS

- 1. FLIPPING SCAM: Property is quickly resold for a new inflated value based on claims the house was significantly renovated or originally undervalued.
- 2. FORECLOSURE RESCUE: False promises to assist homeowner in renegotiating loan terms with the lender in return for a fee.

3

KINDS OF SCAMS

- 3. AIR LOANS: Loans on properties that do not exist or where a lot exists, but no building exists.
- 4. EQUITY SKIMMING: Cheating a homeowner out of the equity they have in their property by getting them to take out a second mortgage or to refinance.

4

KINDS OF SCAMS

5. GHOST CHECKS: Copies of check that were never cashed or deposited put in loan file.

6. GHOST TENANTS: False contracts make it appear a commercial property has business tenants or renters that do not exist or are renting for far less.

5

KINDS OF SCAMS

7. SILENT SECOND: An unrecorded second loan to finance the purchase of real property—usually provides the down payment and falsely makes it appear one is investing their own money.

VARIATIONS ON THE SCAMS

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: How to Avoid Mortgage Fraud

Also available as part of the eCourse

Answer Bar: The Ins and Outs of Commercial Real Estate Loans and Title Insurance

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 57th Annual William W. Gibson, Jr. Mortgage Lending Institute session
"Follow the Money - How to Avoid Mortgage Fraud"