

Unitary Patent System - first experiences -

Florian Meyer
November 3, 2023

1

Agenda

- 1 Introduction
- 2 Statistics
- 3 Decision and Orders
- 4 What we learned so far

2

2

Since June 1, 2023, the Unified Patent Court (UPC) has been busy.

- 53 cases are pending as of September 28, 2023;
- Three preliminary injunctions have been granted;
- Two inspections orders have been granted;
- Multiple oral hearings have taken place (Munich, Vienna, Helsinki); and
- At least 22 case management orders have been issued.
- More than 236 protective letters have been filed (as of June 26, 2023)

3

3

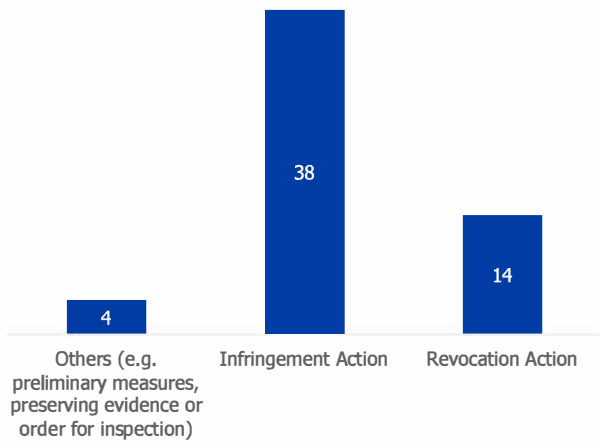

Statistics

4

4

Proceedings

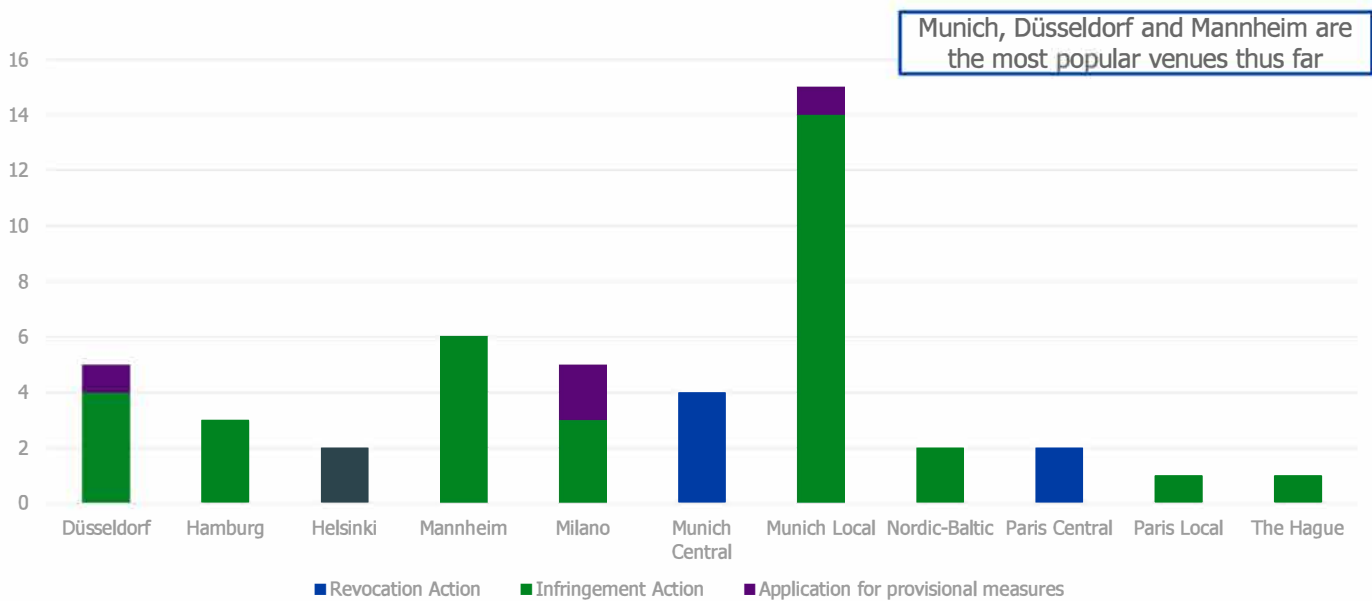

Where are the proceedings are held?

- Others
→ Local Division
- Infringement Action
→ Regional or Local Division
- Revocation Action
→ Central Division

Source: <https://www.juve-patent.com/people-and-business/the-upc-confirms-it-has-52-cases-almost-three-months-after-launch/>

Where are the cases going? (status end of September 2023)

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Unitary Patent System First Experiences

Also available as part of the eCourse

2023 Advanced Patent Law \(Austin\) eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 28th Annual Advanced Patent Law Institute session

"Implications of the EU Unified Patents and the EU Unified Patent Court"